What Is Families Branching Out?

Families Branching Out (FBO) is a hands-on community expo which aims to strengthen families and provide useful community resource information. There is no charge to attend and there is no solicitation or selling.

FBO was created in 2022 to provide a free, multi-generational family-friendly event for everyone. In addition, FBO aims to:

- Cultivate a "learn • share • care" mindset
- engage the community
- encourage volunteerism
- model "learn by doing"
- promote HCE in the community
- celebrate Strengthening Families Month

Our emphasis is to provide a half day of activities for children and adults where they can come and learn new things, have fun, and walk away with a heartwarming experience. There are indoor and outdoor activities.

Everyone can participate in make 'n take activities, maybe have their vision screened, register their child's ID, or learn about resources in the community.
